We will be reading "The Third Wish" by Joan Aiken. Respond to the following statements before reading the story. We will discuss your responses, so consider each statement carefully. There are no wrong answers.

1. You create your own happiness.
2. It is important to make yourself happy before making others happy.
3. It is always important to do the right thing, even if it hurts others.
4. Sometimes it is worth the consequences to take a risk.
5. If you had three wishes, what would you wish for?
